WEDNESDAY WEEKLY WISDOM!

"CHASE"

Once you stop chasing the wrong things, the right ones catch you.

Wake up...chase your dreams... repeat.

Chase connections with people that fill you.

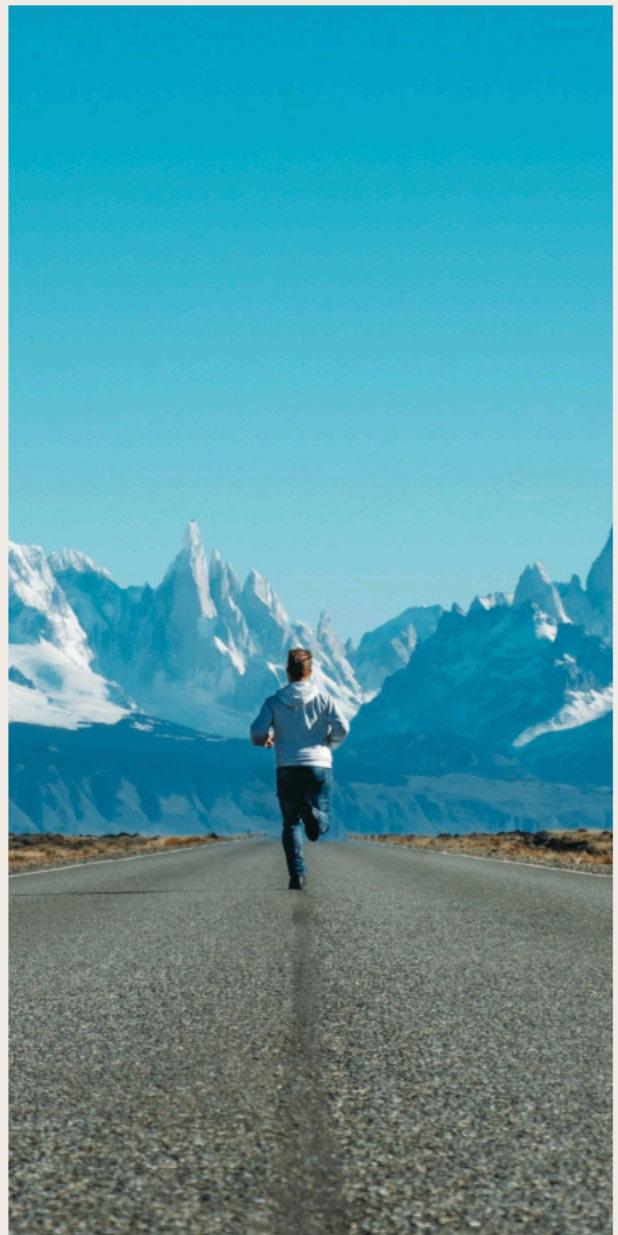

Chase excellence and success will follow.

Don't chase the money, chase your dream.

Don't chase people, be an example to attract them.

Chase progress, not perfection!

Don't chase success, chase growth, discipline and purpose then success will chase you.
