WEDNESDAY WEEKLY WISDOM!

"SECOND"

It's what we do with those second chances that counts.

Sometimes all we need is a second chance.

Every moment of our life is a second chance.

Life offers us a second chance... it's called tomorrow.

It is a lot better the second time around.

I believe in second chances but not everyone earns them.

The first step towards change is awareness, the second step is acceptance.

A second chance is not about forgetting the past; it's about learning from it!
